

University of Toronto
Toronto Initiative for Iranian Studies

With generous support of Inwest Investments and Persian Cultural Foundation
presents

A Two-Day conference on
IRAN AND IRANIAN STUDIES IN THE 20TH CENTURY

Co-conveners, Homa Katouzian and Mohamad Tavakoli

FRIDAY, 19 OCTOBER 2007
IRANIAN STUDIES IN THE 20TH CENTURY
The Great Hall, Hart House
7 Hart House Circle, University of Toronto

10:00-10:10

Opening Remarks
Dr. Akbar Ghahary, Persian Cultural Foundation

10:10-10:50

Stephanie Cronin
Conceptualizing Modern Iran: A Reevaluation

10:50-11:30

Ahmad Karimi-Hakkak
Literary Historiography

11:30-12:10

Azita Taleghani
Persian Linguistics

12:10-1:30

Lunch

1:30-2:10

Touraj Daryaee
Ancient Iranian Studies

2:10-2:50

Monica Ringer
The 'Dakhmeh' Debate and the Zoroastrian Reform Movement

2:50-3:30

Janet Afary
Iran's Unfinished Sexual Revolution

3:30-4:00

Coffee and Tea

4:00-4:40

Mansour Bonakdarian
Britain & Iran Studies in the 20th Century

4:40-5:20

Bert Fragner
Changing Discourses: Walther Hinz and his followers in historical research on Iran in Germany

5:20-6:00

Ali Banuazizi
A Century of Iranian Studies in the United States

SATURDAY, 20 OCTOBER 2007

IRAN IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

Room 150, Earth Science Centre
5 Bancroft Avenue, University of Toronto

10:00-10:40

Nasrin Rahimieh
Conjuring Iran/Characterizing Iranianness

10:40-11:20

Hossein Shahidi
Iranian journalism and the law and in the 20th century

11:20-12:00

Homa Katouzian
Persian Literature in The Twentieth Century

12:00-1:00

Lunch

1:00-2:00

M. Hashem Pesaran and Hadi Salehi Esfahani
Iranian Economy in Twentieth Century: A Global Perspective

2:00-2:40

Kamran Safamanesh
The Transformation of Iran's Built Environment in the Twentieth Century

2:40-3:20

Negar Mottahedeh
Iranian Cinema

3:20-4:00

Coffee and Tea

4:00-4:40

Mohamad Tavakoli-Tavakoli
All that was Holly in Iran

4:40-5:30

Ken Taylor
North American Relations with Iran: A Discussion